On the cover and above, on Sunday, May 12 at the 8 am service, St. John's welcomed the newest member of the body of Christ, Corey Resinger.

From Rev. Dana Lockhart

The Minister of the Congregation is directed to instruct the people, from time to time, about the duty of Christian parents to make prudent provision for the well-being of their families, and of all persons to make wills, while they are in health, arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, not neglecting, if they are able, to leave bequests for religious and charitable uses.

(BCP page 445)

Just following directions... a few words on planned giving.

On May 11th, Julie Ross and I attended a diocesan planned giving workshop on behalf of St. John's (Julie is serving as the vestry member for stewardship this year). Planned giving is a major emphasis for the church right now as we seek ways to ensure that there are sufficient resources for future mission and ministry in central and eastern Kentucky. As one of the presenters noted, the instructions for planned giving in the Book of Common Prayer come at a time when we might not expect them. Rather than being listed among the instructions for ministering to the sick and dying, the instructions above come from a section entitled "Thanksgiving for a Child." We are instructed to talk about wills and providing for the future at the same time we celebrate new life. This is as it should be.

In the months to come, the vestry will be working with these resources from the diocese and the Episcopal Church Foundation to fine tune our endowment and gift policies. In addition, through our partnership with the ECF, St. John's will be able to offer greater resources for people interested in planned giving. In short, the ECF allows smaller congregations like ours to take advantage of a wide range of options comparable to the "development" arm of major universities and large non-profits. As someone under 40, I am particularly encouraged by the wholistic vision of ECF: planned giving options are available for people of all ages and economic circumstances. And that was a major emphasis of the presenter: planned giving is not about the size of the gift, but the love and dedication with which it is given.

More to come as we continue working on plans to sustain St. John's and grow our capacity for another 170+ years of ministry!

In Christ,

Fr. Dana

SUMMER SUNDAYS AT ST. JOHN'S

To encourage parish-wide fellowship, we will be providing a light brunch (pastries, fruit and cereal) between the 8 am and the 10 am services as well as after the 10 am service during the summer from Memorial Day through Labor Day. Also, because it is summertime, there will be at least three pot luck brunches during the summer months including:

June 9 – Indoor potluck

July 7 – Outdoor service with potluck

August 4 – Outdoor service with AME Church with potluck

Please join us for fellowship following each of the services and mark your calendars for the three potluck brunches. Enjoy the summer!

The next edition of Eagle Wings will be published just prior to the first Sunday in July and will be a combined July & August version. The deadline for submissions will be June 15 to stjohn-skynews@gmail.com. Contact Katherine Harper at 859-285-9336 if you have any questions. Many thanks for all of your submissions of news, articles and photos. Keep them coming!

One Sunday in June, during the 10 am service, we will have a fire drill. The fire department will be on hand to help us evaluate our response and give us recommendations on ways to improve our plan in the event of a real emergency and a need to evacuate our building. Everyone's assistance and cooperation is greatly appreciated!!

Cathedral Domain: Information about the Cathedral Domain Summer Camp is available in the parish hall. This year, we are encouraging all children and youth to consider attending camp. Fr. Dana will be the co-chaplain of Junior Camp (June 23-29th). Camperships are available! Please contact Deacon Emily if you would like to request financial assistance.

On Sunday, May 19, our Choristers were awarded their ribbons for achievement in the Royal School of Church Music program. That evening, the choir presented a lovely service of Evensong where they too were awarded their ribbons for achievement. Especially honored were Gayle Box as Interim Choir Director and Elizabeth Yanarella, Interim Organist.

RE: KENTUCKY, WOODFORD COUNTY,
Ready-Twyman House,
220 N. Main St.,
Versailles vicinity, SG100003477,
LISTED, 3/7/2019

Dear St. John's Episcopal Church:

The Kentucky Heritage Council is pleased to inform you the Ready-Twyman House was entered in the National Register of Historic Places on March 7, 2019.

The National Register of Historic Places is the official list of properties recognized by the federal government as worthy of preservation for their local, state, or national significance in American history, architecture, archeology, engineering or culture. It is also the story of our nation and has been referred to as a "roll call of the tangible reminders of the history of the United States, a list of distinction identifying for the public those properties worthy of preservation for their historic value." It is, therefore, a pleasure for the Kentucky Heritage Council to participate in this program and make our nation aware of Kentucky's rich cultural heritage.

Benefits include limited protection against adverse action by federal agencies and eligibility for federal and state tax benefits for the rehabilitation of depreciable historic buildings. Listing in the National Register also makes you eligible to purchase a certificate of listing, suitable for framing. The Heritage Council charges a nominal fee of $10.00 for a certificate, to pay for production and postage. If you wish to purchase a certificate, please mail a check payable to Kentucky State Treasurer, to our office. The Kentucky Heritage Council encourages owners of historic properties to display National Register certificates or plaques as a means of recognizing and promoting the National Register program to visitors and future owners.

If you have any questions, please contact my colleague, Lisa Thompson, National Register Coordinator, at (502) 892-3609 or at lisam.thompson@ky.gov.

Congratulations and thank you for preserving our heritage for generations to come.

Sincerely,

Craig A. Potts
Executive Director and State Historic Preservation Officer

From Ken Overturf, Junior Warden

At the May 21 Vestry meeting the first item of discussion centered on the gift to St. John's of needlepoint artwork banners of the stations of the cross. Currently there are real size photos in the nave of the actual banners on display at the Kanuga Conference Center in North Carolina. This gift involves lots of time, labor, love and a sizable investment in multi-colored yarns and backing materials. There will be no financial burden to the church. The Vestry voted to accept this wonderful and beautiful gift for St. John's. It will take a little more than two years for George Abbott-Maze to finish all of the 14 stations.

In the meantime a small army of fellow parishioners steadfastly continue to maintain our grounds, lawns, flowers, heating and air conditioning equipment, and changing the occasional burned out light bulb! Many thanks to everyone.

Reading Club graduation was held on Wednesday, May 8 and we wished our six graduates well with our customary program. Virginia Ballard composed a poem for each child noting their personal accomplishments and challenged them to reach new heights. Sara Meekins closed the program with The Giving Tree by Shel Silverstein and gave each graduate a backpack of books to enjoy over the summer.

This year the Woodford County Reading Club awarded three $1,000 John Darsie Scholarships to Reading Club graduates for their post-secondary education: Kyler Shifflet, Kayla George and Corey George. In addition, Corey George (pictured) received a matching $1,000 scholarship from the Kentucky Community and Technical College System to attend BCTCS and study civil engineering.

Many thanks to everyone who helps with and supports the Woodford County Reading Club!! Summer Camp is fast approaching!
